ADOPTED BY THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

January 21, 2014

POLICY #2014-14

Rules on Officer Conduct

1. Officers of the Caucus will be held to conducting themselves in a professional manner at all times. It will never be acceptable for any officer of the Caucus to conduct themselves in a manner that would bring discredit upon their position, the membership, the Executive Board or the Caucus.
2. Officers will be well versed in the Bylaws and Polices of this Caucus and will not intentionally breach them at any time.
3. Officers documented in the approved minutes of at least either 2 Caucus meetings in a row, or 4 Executive Board meetings in a row, as having been absent without communication of any kind to excuse them from said meetings or clarify their reasons for absence shall be considered to have automatically resigned their positions regardless of lack of any communication by any method of such resignation.
4. A majority vote of the remaining Executive Board members is to be taken to declare the position vacated by automatic resignation due to absence. Once this is done, a special election will be held to fill the seat in accordance with the Bylaws.
