POLICY #2014-16

Rules on Media Interaction

1. The Chair of the Caucus is the designated spokesperson of the Caucus to the media. They may specifically designate another officer or member of the Caucus to speak on their behalf in specific situations, but such designation is for that event or circumstance only.
2. The Chair of the Communications Committee, as directed by the Chair of the Caucus or the Executive Board, will often represent the Caucus to the media in order to allow for the conducting of their duties.
3. Any officer of the Executive Board may interact with the media, using their Caucus title, provided that they indicate that the title is for ID Purposes only and that their comments do not reflect the opinion of the Caucus.
